DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 8-15, 18-20 and 22 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention(s), there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 7.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

- On page 2, line 6, "(see FIG.2)" should be corrected as --(see FIG. 3)--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the magnetizable core must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 2832

Claims 1-7, 16, 17 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant fails to disclose an adequate written description [see figure 4] of the magnetizable core.

Claims 1-7, 16, 17 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Applicant fails to disclose an enablement of the magnetizable core in the specification.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-7, 16, 17 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, applicant should clarify the structure and arrangement of the magnetizable core. From figure 4, it appears that there is only "a lossy, magnetizable device 20". Applicant should clarify. Applicant should clarify what is intended by "magnetizable device so interacting with the winding arrangement." Claims 2-7, 16, 17 and 21 inherit the defects of the parent claim.

Art Unit: 2832

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3, 6, 7, 16, 17 and 21, as best understood in view of the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112 first and second paragraphs, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by applicant admitted prior art of figures 1-3 [AAPA].

AAPA discloses an induction apparatus [figures 1-3] for use in an electric machine, comprising:

- a magnetizable core [5];
- a winding arrangement including a plurality of coils [1] connected in series [figure 1];
- a support or bobbin [6] for supporting the coils [7];
- input and output terminals [2, 3] for applying a control voltage or a control current to the winding arrangement; and
- a magnetizable yoke device [4] formed of at least partially ferrite, so interacting with the winding arrangement.

Regarding claim 7, AAPA discloses the winding arrangement is wound layer-by-layer on a coil body [6] that is separate from the magnetizable device.

Claims 1-6, 16, 17 and 21, as best understood in view of the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112 first and second paragraphs, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shahamat et al. [US 4,968,912].

Art Unit: 2832

Shahamat et al. discloses an induction apparatus [figures 1-2] comprising:

- a magnetizable core [18];
- a winding arrangement [22, 24] wound about the magnetizable core;
- input and outputs [column 3, lines 20-35]; and
- a lossy, magnetizable device [28, 46-48] so interacting with the winding arrangement, wherein winding ends of the the winding arrangement extended through and about the magnetizable device.

Regarding claim 5-6, Shahamat et al. inherently discloses the current transformer as a magnetizable device having a toroidal ferrite core.
